

Community Data Program

Enabling communities across Canada to measure and track local well-being

Community Snapshot

Calgary Economic Development Census 2016 Infographic

Summary

This helpful infographic summarizes 2016 Census findings for the Calgary CMA. It presents data on population, income, diversity, employment, commute, and education. The document is a great resource for Calgary based groups, educators, and employers. It provides a helpful vision of how to visualize Census data for your community.

Population

1,392,609

A 14.6% increase from the 2011 population of 1,214,839

50.1% 49.9%

Highest

population growth of all Canadian census metropolitan areas 2011 to 2016

Youngest

The lowest average age of major Canadian cities at 37.4. The median age of Calgarians is 36.4

70.2% of Calgary's population is between the ages of 15 to 64, the highest of major Canadian cities

The Daily Work Commute

When it comes to the daily commute, 32% of Calgarians use sustainable transportation

14.4%

use public transit

11.4%

carpool

1.5%

cycle to work

4.7%

walk to work

Community data used

- 2016 Census (Statistics Canada)